THE LIFE OF DAVID F. JONES

David F. Jones, the ninth child of James and Elizabeth Funnell Jones was born at Meade, Michigan on May 7, 1852. His youth was spent like the other members of the family at the farm home and in attendance at the district school.

David Jones was married to Ellen Janet Furton on May 28, 1874 in Macomb County. He later bought the homestead and the family made this their home until February 1902 when he retired from the farm and bought a home at Meade just one half mile north of the farm.

His wife having passed away September 7, 1908, he lived in Davis, Michigan for two years with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wright, his oldest daughter.

In 1910 he moved to Mount Clemens and for more than thirty years has made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Milo S. Warner and family.

He has been a loyal member of the Methodist Church for many years and during his life at Meade was closely connected with the work of the church there.

In addition to Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Warner, Mr. Jones has two other daughters: Mrs. Wilbur F. Bliss of Mount Clemens, and Mrs. John W. Bird of Meade.

He was 90 years of age on May 7, 1942 and is the only living member of the James Jones family.

JAMES JONES

SKETCH OF LIFE OF JAMES JONES

James Jones, the son of John Jones, was born at Baisensstock, England. His father and mother both died at Swindon, England, when he was about two years old. He, his brother, Robert, and his sister, Elizabeth were left to the charitable care of relatives. He first remembered of living with a Mrs. Walker, his mother's sister, in Chiseldon, England. From his 14th to 18th year, he lived with an uncle at Marlborough, named Thomas Wheeler. His grandfather Wheeler died before he remembered. He went to London and worked in a bakery. Later he went into the leather business. He came to America in 1832. He met Elizabeth Funnell on shipboard and in the fall they were married at Rochester, New York, where her family settled. He went back to England, closed up his business which he had left expecting to return to. He came back the next year, and in 1834 removed to Macomb County where he remained until his death. He was Justice of the Peace from 1862 until 1866, and again in 1870. He went back to England six times. He did business in Hamilton, Ontario, from 1878 to 1882; held township offices; and was prominent in church and society. He was an Episcopalian but mostly attended the M. E. Church at Meade, Michigan. His wife, Elizabeth Ann, died at New Haven. He and his wife are buried in the Meade Cemetery.

OBITUARY

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of one of Macomb County's oldest pioneers, James Jones, who died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. John Lefurgey, Monday evening, October 7, 1895.

Owing to his extreme old age, deceased had of late years had several debilitating attacks from the last of which he never recovered, but passed painlessly away, surrounded by his sorrowing family. Mr. Jones and wife had been visiting his sons and daughter of this place and were intending to return to their home in New Haven on the day following the one on which he was taken ill.

No citizen of Macomb County was better known or more widely esteemed than Mr. Jones. He was born in Swindon, England, June 29, 1804. He came to America in 1832, and located in Macomb County in 1834, his residence in this county thus extending back to a period of over 60 years. He experienced all the privations, and shared in the laborious work of the early pioneers. He became a convert to the Christian religion at the age of 19 years, and uniting with the Wesleyan Methodists and since that time he has been a sincere and earnest worker in the cause of religion, his ideal being not what people will think, but what is right.

At the time of his emigration to America, and while crossing the Atlantic Ocean he formed the acquaintance of Miss Elizabeth Funnell, whom he subsequently married at Rochester, New York. Ten children were born to them, eight of whom are still living, viz: Mrs. Theodore McDonald of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Mary Brownlee of Detroit, Charles, Robert, Frank and David Jones and Mrs. John Lefurgey of Meade, and Mrs. Russell Hazelton of Ray Center. His wife dying at the end of fifty years, he afterward married Miss Matilda Taylor who today mourns his loss.

Since leaving England, Mr. Jones has revisited his native land six times, thus making thirteen trips across the Atlantic.

Socially, he was of general manner and strong conversational powers. He was a man of noble principles, possessing great strength and energy of character, upright to the last degree. His family life was kind and irreproachable while all his business dealings as well as his acts in public life were characterized by a sterling integrity of the highest standard. He had friends on every hand, and by all who know this cheery, broad-minded man, his death will be keenly felt.

Although by the death of Mr. Jones several families in this vicinity are deprived of a member very near and dear to them, yet sweet is the thought that their loss is his eternal gain. The funeral services were held at the Meade Church, Thursday afternoon, October 10. Rev. John Russell, assisted by Rev. Eldred, officiating. An appropriate text was chosen from Acts 11:24, "For he was a good man, full of grace and the holy ghost." A large audience attested their sympathy by their presence, and a long line of carriages followed the remains to the cemetery.

THE BEGINNING OF THE JAMES JONES FAMILY REUNION

On January 1, 1852, Elizabeth Ann, the oldest daughter of James and Elizabeth Jones was united in marriage to Theodore McDonald. On the Anniversary of this date the family met at the Jones farm one-half mile south of Meade for a reunion each year. About twelve years later, other members of the family having married, it was thought best to change the date of the family gathering to a summer date. The Fourth of July was chosen.

These meetings were continued for about ten years when James Jones, his wife, daughter, Ida S., and youngest son, David F., the only two children remaining at home, left the farm to live in New Haven. Loren Stroup and his wife, Celia, lived on the farm at Meade. The reunion was still held at the farm for two successive years. When David F., who had married Ellen J. Furton, in May 1874, purchased the farm, it was decided that the four brothers, Charles H., Robert N., J. Franklin, and David F. should entertain the family group, each taking his turn according to age. This was about 1876. This plan was followed until the death of J. Franklin in 1904 when his daughter, Nellie, and her husband entertained for that branch of the family. This routine was again interrupted by the death of Ellen J., wife of David F. in 1908, Harriet, wife of Robert N. in 1909, and Celestia, wife of Charles H. in 1910. Since that time the place of meeting is decided by invitation.

Moved and supported that Charles, Robert, David Jones and James McDonald be a committee to carry the work forward. Moved and supported that the family records of the brothers' and sisters' families be sent to Mr. McDonald and he will have them published by the State authorities.
